

Cover 2 We read this book once before, and you know that the title of the book is..... Corduroy. Underline the word with your finger as you read the title. We're going to read this story again and talk about the things that happen.	P 1 Read P1 2	P 2-3 Read P2 2 Point out overalls. No one seemed to want Corduroy, but what happened one morning? (Lisa and her Mom stopped to look at a bear in the toy department: Lisa wanted to buy Corduroy.) Yes. Read first four lines of Page 3 Did Lisa's mom say yes or no? (No) She said no, and what reasons did she give? ... Right, Lisa's mom had spent too much money already, and she also didn't think Corduroy looked new because he'd lost a button.
P 4-5 2 Read page 4 and first sentence of P 5 Corduroy has a plan for what he will do about the missing button. What is his plan? (He is going to look for it at night.) Read the remainder of P 5	P 6-7 2 Is it nighttime yet? It must be. The lights are low, and Corduroy is getting down from the toy shelf. Read p6-7	P 8-9 2 Something happened that surprised Corduroy. What happened?..... Yes. He stepped on the escalator, and it started going up. Read p8-9
P 10-11 2 Read p 10-11 When Corduroy got to the furniture department, where did he think he was? (in a palace) A palace is a big house where kings and queens live.	P 12-13 2 What's Corduroy doing here? Point to the bear climbing on to the mattress.? And then what does he spy? Point to a button on the mattress. Read P 12-13 What happened to the thread when Corduroy pulled hard on it? Point to the picture. (It held tight at first, then broke.) Help children make connections between the broken string, Corduroy's tumble and the crashing lamp.	P 14-15 2 Read P 14-15 He made a lot of noise, didn't he? Do you think he realized that someone had heard the big bang? (Guide children toward the fact that Corduroy hid under the covers of the bed.) Maybe he just scared himself. Did someone hear? Yes, the night watchman.
P 16-17 Read 16-17 2 Where was Corduroy hiding? (Under the covers) Yes, but had he hidden himself completely? Was he all covered up, or was something sticking out? (His ears stuck out.)	P 18-19 Read 18 2 What kind of light was the night watchman using so that he could see? (flashlight) And did the night watchman know why Corduroy was upstairs in the store in the furniture department?.....	P 20-21 Read 2

P 22-23 2 First thing in the morning when Corduroy woke up, who was looking at him in the toy department? (Lisa) And why was she back? (She wanted to buy him) Right! Why had Lisa’s mother changed her mind and said that Lisa could buy Corduroy? (Lisa was using her own money, money she had saved in a piggy bank.) Yes. Read 22-23	P 24-25 2 The saleslady asks Lisa something here. What is it? Point to the box in her hand..... Right, and Lisa said no. She wanted to carry him. Read P 25 How do you think Lisa is feeling right now? (happy excited)	P 26-27 2 Corduroy saw something for him right next to Lisa’s bed. Point to the tiny bed. What is it? (a little bed) He was thinking to himself that this was not a palace like at the store, but someplace else. What did he call this place? (home_ Give the first sound to prompt the word.
P 28 Read P 28 2 What did Corduroy say to Lisa when she hugged him? (You must be a friend)	Story discussion: 2 Do you think Corduroy really said “You must be a friend,” to Lisa, or do you think she imagined that he said it? Guide children to Lisa imagined it. Discuss how children pretend stuffed animals and dolls are real people when they play with them.	